

Ave Maria

In the style of - and just possibly nicked via subliminal aural transmission from -
Mozart or one of his contemporaries.

John Riley 2013/18

$\text{♩} = 92$

The musical score consists of four staves. The top three staves (Treble, Alto, and Bass) are blank for the first eight measures. The fourth staff, which includes a treble clef, a bass clef, a key signature of one sharp, and a common time signature, begins at measure 9. It features a piano/vocal part with a vocal line and harmonic support. The vocal line starts with sustained notes followed by eighth-note patterns. The lyrics "Ave Maria, Ave Maria, gratia plena" are repeated twice. The piano part provides harmonic support with sustained notes and eighth-note chords. Measures 17 through 24 show a continuation of the piano/vocal line with more complex harmonic progressions and sustained notes.
